

Dear Guest,

Warm greetings from Almaria – Buildings with History.

In the current climate of uncertainty surrounding travel, Almaria – Buildings with History would like to once again thank you for the confidence and preference by choosing Almaria for your stay here in Lisbon, Portugal.

Almaria – Buildings with History has been closely monitoring the global situation since March 2020 and has actively taken all the steps in order to mitigate the impact and spread of Covid-19, working with the local health authorities while strictly adhering to the advice of the (WHO) World Health Organization and the Portuguese Ministry of Health.

Our priority is to ensure the right safety and protection of our guests as well as our team.

Therefore and in the face of the new developments of the pandemic SARS-CoV-2, Almaria – Buildings with History has decided to temporarily close down its three buildings - Edifício - Ex Libris; Edifício - Da Corte; Edifício - Oficina Real - up to the 31st of January 2021 in the attempt to positively contribute to stop the spread of the outbreak Covid-19.

At Almaria – Buildings with History we are passionate travellers ourselves and we are committed to welcome all our guests from the 1st of February onwards where you can expect from this date onwards to receive the same excellent service and attention to detail that our guests have come to expect from Almaria – Buildings with History.

We remain fully available to answer any questions regarding future stays and reservations.

We can't wait to welcome you again in the near future, here in Lisbon - Chiado.

Kind Regards from a city full of History.

Always Your team,

Almaria
